

Role summary

Architectural Apprenticeship is a programme officially approved by the Institute for Apprenticeships which combines working with learning and leads to gaining academic qualifications.

The Architect Apprenticeship Level 7 is a four-year programme that incorporates the ARB/RIBA Part 2 and Part 3 qualifications with a partner university. An apprentice will spend 20% of the contracted time in the academic training and 80% of the time will be utilised to learn through practice.

The offer of an apprenticeship will be conditional upon the applicant securing a place on the Level 7 Architectural course at our educational provider. Please note that we are unable to offer Tier 2 visa sponsorship for this role. Therefore, it is essential the applicant is eligible to work in the UK. Other eligibility requirements may also apply to meet apprenticeship regulations.
